

EXHIBITION CENTER

4th year | group

Taking into account the future of fresh water supply, design an education and exhibition center along the Great Lakes which focuses on water treatment and conservation. The building should be an attraction for the town to gather and learn.