

URBAN GALLERY

2nd year | individual

Designing for an empty corner lot in the city of Chicago, the focus of the project was to create a work + live gallery for travelling artists. The spaces were to highlight three unique works of art, each requiring different qualities of natural light..